THE GROUP OF SEVEN EXHIBITION

TEN years ago this group of Canadian painters came together and held their first exhibition at The Art Gallery of Toronto. Since that day a great forward movement of art in Canada has made itself felt and exhibitions of all Canadian Art Associations are impregnated with the sincere spirit of adventure. Youthful painters are asserting more than a mere preoccupation with topographical and natural features of the Canadian scene. They are cutting trails. The physical trails run north, east and west—but mostly north—into the heart of the country, away from the cities. The most significant trail has been cut into the spiritual and national life of the country, challenging apathy, and giving a new rythm to the forward stride of a people.

“Canadian Art” is no longer a catchy slogan for optimistic youth and weary dilletante to play with, nor for any group, individuals, or societies to lay claim to—it is here and now. By and through the efforts of Canadian painters everywhere, the forms and character of our country and people are revealed to ourselves and to others—establishing a creative Canada—a country with an art and a home.

For the first time, Edwin Holgate of Montreal is exhibiting as a member of the group. As in previous exhibitions of the Group there are a number of invited contributions by younger artists whose work is in harmony with that of the members of the Group of Seven.

Attention: Mr. Fred S. Haines

Dear Mr. Haines:

→ In reference to the error appearing in the April catalogue, page 12, where the picture "The Picnic, Georgian Bay, July", is credited to L.A.C. Panton, we have turned up the photoprint and find that you have written on the correct name of the painter, Phillips.

Unfortunately, we did not have the photoprint here when making up the final proof, so we sent over a set of proofs of all pictures to the Gallery to have the names put on, and on this the name of L.A.C. Panton is plainly printed for the above mentioned picture.

Also when the final proof of catalogue was being read by Miss Day and myself, I questioned the fact of there being two pictures of Mr. Panton's in the book, and Miss Day assured me that they both were Mr. Panton's and that the reason two of them were shown, was that there were no other pictures in the Gallery available for photographing at the time these were got out.

We regret extremely that the mistake has been made, but really do not feel that we can accept the responsibility for it.

Yours truly,

ROUS AND MANN, LIMITED

John D. McCaul
